Notice of Court Duty to Issue Notice to Attorney General Paxton

TO THE CLERK AND COURT:

COMES NOW FirstName LastName, PartyLabel herein, stating thusly:

As constitutional challenges to Texas state statutes are not a routine matter, this Notice is a mere clarification/reminder of the Court’s (Clerk’s) express legal duty to now issue the Court’s own formal Notice unto the Office of the Attorney General, and the proper procedure thereof.

On October 6th, 2025, the undersigned filed my Motion to Vacate All Child-Related Orders for Lack of Jurisdiction with the obligatory official Texas state form for challenging state statutes accompanying the same Motion, as well as a summary Notice of Constitutional Challenges to Texas State Statutory Schemes. See the Docket for all three (3) said Oct. 6th, 2025 entries.

Thereby, I have formally and duly raised, all in the manner as by law prescribed, multiple facial constitutional challenges to the assorted repugnant Texas state statutes complained of.

THE COURT IS REQUIRED TO ISSUE NOTICE TO AG PAXTON

Required Statement: The Office of the Attorney General is not yet a party within this matter.

The filing of the official state form regarding constitutional challenges to state statutes has therefore triggered an express duty of the Court – to issue the proper and corresponding Notice package unto Attorney General Paxton of said constitutional challenges raised herein, in compliance with Texas Government Code Section 402.010(a), which package includes a copy of said official state form filed, along with copies of the above Motion and Notice attached thereto.

The Court – and the Clerk’s personnel – are given this very short official guidance upon the task involved (methods of properly issuing notice) as provided by the Texas Supreme Court: <https://www.txcourts.gov/rules-forms/challenging-the-constitutionality-of-a-state-statute>

The above official webpage guidance expressly notes that the Clerk may use either the email address of const_claims@texasattorneygeneral.gov and/or may also send the Notice information package by certified or registered mail.

WHEREFORE, the PartyLabel herein, FirstName LastName, provides said clarifying Notice, along with official guidance therefore, and prays for all relief true, lawful, just and proper in these premises.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ FirstName LastName
